[redacted] was telephonically contacted by writer on 5/17/95. Basically [redacted] stated she had been a civilian [redacted] for the U.S. ARMY and was descriminated against and forced from her position while assigned in GERMANY.
Subsequently, [redacted] filed a discrimination lawsuit in WASHINGTON D.C. which was later transferred to a docket in ST.
LOUIS. A civil trial is set in U.S DISTRICT COURT before JUDGE DONALD STOHR in August, 1995. [redacted] alleges that during discovery most of her witnesses, all ARMY employees, were intimidated, demoted and/or forced to resign from the ARMY.
These actions occured after [redacted] provided her list of witnesses to the ARMY in preparation for trial.

Dear Mr. Crowe:

This office represents [REDACTED] who currently has a lawsuit pending against Togo West, Secretary of the Army. I understand that [REDACTED] called your office recently to file a witness tampering charge relative to her lawsuit. She was told that no one from the U.S. Attorney's Office could speak to her because of the pending litigation. This office hereby authorizes you to speak directly to [REDACTED] for the limited purpose of processing her witness intimidation charge. In the alternative, you may call me at [REDACTED] and direct me as to how I can file such a charge on [REDACTED] behalf.

On 6/28/95 writer contacted SSA [redacted] Public Corruption Unit, Criminal Investigative Division, FBIHQ, regarding captioned matter. After considering the facts as known by this office and current FBI policy in this area, SSA [redacted] advised that FBIHQ would not authorize investigation of the complainant's allegations. He cited the lack of identifiable subjects, the lack of evidence of criminal activity, and the existence of civil remedies. SSA [redacted] position was conveyed to Assistant U.S. Attorney JAMES CROWE, U.S. ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, Eastern District of Missouri, who concurred in the decision.

Honorable Edward L. Dowd, Jr.
United States Attorney
Eastern District of Missouri
United States Department of Justice
1114 Market Street, Room 414
St. Louis, Missouri 63101

Attention: Mr. James E. Crowe, Jr.
Assistant United States Attorney

Dear Mr. Dowd:

Re: Unknown Subject; AKA Togo West, Secretary of the Army,
Obstruction of Justice

Per your letter dated April 25, 1995, in referenced matter, we have interviewed complainant [redacted] at [redacted] Missouri on [redacted] A copy of the results of interview are attached.

b6
b7C

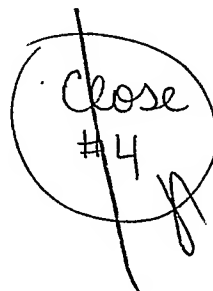

Subsequent to the interview, a review of [redacted] complaint by our office, in consultation with Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) headquarters, resulted in an assessment this matter does not warrant further investigation by the FBI.

b6
b7C

The FBI is of the opinion that this is a civil matter and as such [redacted] with her legal counsel, can seek injunctions or other possible sanctions through the United States District Court which will be trying [redacted] case in [redacted] [redacted] In considering [redacted] complaint our office believes since this issue is not criminal in nature, it does not reach a sufficient threshold in relation to our overall investigative responsibilities.
